Trust God

J. Kennedy

Trusting God requires complete actionable reliance on His infinite wisdom first, rather than treating God as a last resort. True faith means following God's Word over human understanding, even when facing life's inevitable storms and your dark seasons. Where you turn first when a problem arises reveals who or what you truly trust. True trust in God, requires action and obedience.

"Faith is a risk that bridges the gap between what you see naturally and what God is doing supernaturally".
Dr. Tony Evans
